4. Target market	The target market for the Product is individuals who: a) are seeking a line of credit facility for everyday spending to earn up to 1 Reward Points per dollar on certain purchases and make use of complimentary insurances; b) meet eligibility criteria and serviceability requirements for the Product; and c) are unlikely to hold substantial balances for prolonged periods except to take advantage of reduced interest rates and/or instalment repayments on a Fixed Payment Option or a Balance Transfer (including holding a Balance Transfer for longer than the period during which a reduced interest rate applies).
5. Likely objectives, financial situation and needs of individuals in the target market	The likely objectives, financial situation and needs of individuals in the target market include: a) want to utilise a credit card as a payment method or as a line of credit for everyday spend, or take advantage of reduced interest rates and/or instalment repayments on a Fixed Payment Option or a Balance Transfer; b) need a credit card with a credit limit to meet cash flow needs; c) want to earn Reward Points on Eligible Transactions to redeem points earned through the Citi Rewards Program and/or make use of complimentary insurances; d) meet minimum serviceability requirements and other eligibility requirements linked to their financial situation (e.g. minimum income level); and e) are unlikely to carry a substantial balance on their credit card over a prolonged period and are able to afford the annual fee, other fees and interest rates associated with the Product.
6. Why it is reasonable to conclude that the Product is likely to be consistent with the likely objectives, financial situation and needs of individuals in the target market	The Product, if sold to individuals in the target market, is likely to be consistent with the likely objectives, financial situation and needs of those individuals because the key attributes of this Product are likely to be suitable for individuals in that target market, including that: a) it can be: • utilised as a payment method or as a line of credit; and • used to establish Fixed Payment Options or execute Balance Transfers to obtain the benefit of lower interest rates and/or instalment repayments; b) it provides the ability to earn Reward Points that can be redeemed through the Citi Rewards program and provides access to ancillary benefits and complimentary insurances including travel; and c) the eligibility criteria and serviceability requirements are aligned with key product attributes including the minimum credit limit.

7. Distribution conditions	The Product is designed to be distributed by authorised distributors through the following channels: • online through the Citi website and mobile app and via third party aggregators and partners, including unassisted online applications; and • assisted applications through authorised call centres. The following conditions and restrictions on retail product distribution conduct apply in relation to the Product in addition to any condition or restriction imposed by or under the Act: a) the Product may only be issued to individuals who meet the Product eligibility criteria and serviceability requirements; b) individuals prior to completing an application have access to appropriate information and tools on the Citi website or mobile app designed to assist individuals to understand if the Product attributes are likely to meet their objectives; c) third party distributors (e.g. aggregators and partners) may only distribute the Product if they are authorised to do so and then only in the manner described in that authorisation; and d) authorised call centre staff may only distribute the Product if they are authorised to do so and then only in the manner permitted.
8. Why do the distribution conditions make it more likely that individuals who acquire the Product are in the target market?	If the Product is sold to an individual in accordance with the distribution conditions, it is likely that the individual is in the target market for reasons including that: a) the distribution conditions will facilitate distribution to individuals who meet the eligibility criteria and serviceability requirements for the Product; b) available information and tools are more likely to assist individuals to assess if the key attributes of the Product are consistent with their objectives; c) an individual who meets the eligibility criteria and serviceability requirements for the Product is less likely to carry a substantial balance on their credit card over a prolonged period and is more likely to be able to afford the annual fee, other fees and interest rates associated with the Product; d) authorised third party distributors are subject to contractual obligations which assist to make it likely that the Product is only distributed to individuals meeting eligibility criteria and serviceability requirements for the Product; and e) authorised call centre staff are trained to understand the Product and the relevant NAB policies.
9. Events and circumstances (review triggers) that would reasonably suggest the TMD is no longer appropriate	In addition to the initial and periodic reviews, the TMD will be reviewed upon the occurrence of any of the following events: a) a material increase over a 12 month period in the proportion of individuals with the Product: • who enter into collections or hardship that would suggest difficulty in being able to service the Product; and/or • who lodge complaints that relate to the design or the distribution of the Product; that would suggest the TMD is no longer appropriate. b) a material change to the design or the distribution of the Product that relates to factors taken into account in making the TMD for the Product; and c) a significant dealing in the Product that reasonably suggests the TMD is no longer appropriate.
